AFFORDING PUBLIC HEALTH SCHOOL

HOW TO MAKE IT HAPPEN

WELCOME TO AN OVERVIEW OF HOW TO AFFORD A GRADUATE SCHOOL EDUCATION.

Funding graduate education is not like undergraduate funding. Awards are not based upon parental income. Scholarships and awards are packaged during the financial aid process in March. For that reason, we encourage you to complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), even if you may not have qualified for aid during your undergraduate program. We use the FAFSA to award all funds.

Financial aid eligibility is determined by official cost-of-attendance estimates, but schools differ dramatically in how they assemble these estimates. Emory University computes the estimated cost-of-living figures based on the Consumer Expenditure Survey (CES) and the Indexes of Comparative Costs, both produced by the U.S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Although many universities utilize the low range of this survey, Emory uses the moderate cost-of-living numbers to allow students maximum financial aid eligibility. Many students' expenses are well below these estimates, as described in this guide.

Submit the FAFSA, and do it early! This ensures consideration for institutional grant opportunities. The FAFSA is available October 1 this year for the upcoming term. Be sure to take this important first step as you apply to Rollins.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

PLANNING YOUR PUBLIC HEALTH EDUCATION

ATTENDING GRADUATE SCHOOL IS AN INVESTMENT IN YOUR FUTURE. There are a number of sources for funding your public health education. As with any investment, it is important to carefully examine your options.

ROLLINS FUNDING

The Rollins School of Public Health is committed to helping students make their education affordable. We offer several scholarships and grants each year to many of our students. Visit bit.ly/RSPH-funding for a list of available financial aid resources.

Merit-Based Scholarships

To be considered for a merit-based scholarship, submit your completed application by January 5, the priority application deadline for eligibility for one of 21 Rollins merit scholarships. In general, merit scholars receive anywhere from 40 percent to 100 percent of tuition, plus a Rollins Earn and Learn (REAL) award.

The James W. Curran and Robert W. Woodruff scholarships are the largest and most prestigious awards offered and include full tuition, a stipend, an applied practice experience award, and a REAL award. Visit bit.ly/rsphmerit for a complete list of all merit-based scholarships.

Mission-Driven Aid

Mission-driven scholarships are available to all students who meet the required criteria and submit a completed application. The following are the mission-driven awards available:

- AmeriCorps and Teach for America
- Bonner Scholarship
- McNair Scholarship
- Emory Health Sciences Dual-Degree Award
- External MD/MPH Award
- Returning Peace Corps Volunteers
- Yellow Ribbon Financial Opportunity

Some awards are granted on a first-come, first-serve basis; so, we invite you to more fully explore the criteria for these awards online at bit.ly/rsphmission. PLEASE NOTE that merit-based and mission-driven awards are not cumulative. Students who are eligible for more than one award will receive the award that is of the greater amount.

Institutional & Need-Based Awards

Many of our students are eligible for institutional and need-based awards. These grants range in amount, and are gifted on a first-come, first-serve basis according to the completion date of the FAFSA. It is important to ensure that the FAFSA is completed and submitted to Emory well in advance of the February 15 financial aid deadline to increase your chances of receiving one of these awards. The FAFSA will be available October 1 for completion.

- ▶ Lettie Pate Whitehead Scholarship
- ▶ Rollins Pathway Award
- ▶ Lupton Jones Scholarship
- ▶ Ivory Henson Scholarship Fund
- ▶ Rollins Earn and Learn (REAL)

One of the primary reasons students choose to study at Rollins is the plethora of applied public health opportunities available in Atlanta, the “Public Health Capital of the World.” Our students benefit from our partnerships and through the REAL program which is a work-study program offered by Rollins. It enables eligible, full-time MPH and MSPH students valuable opportunities to earn while they learn. REAL provides employment to more than half of our full-time students. The award amount is $3,000 per semester, or $6,000 for the academic year. These awards are granted on a first-come, first-serve basis according to the completion date of the FAFSA. International students will be mailed a REAL award application. Visit sph.emory.edu/REAL to learn more about this program.

“ In my first semester, I had the opportunity to work with Rollins faculty members in the beginning stages of exploring how to effectively capture cancer recurrence in national cancer registries. In just a few short months, I’ve learned how to navigate through pathology data, gain exposure to the inner workings of national surveillance systems and contribute to (and submit) an abstract to the American Association for Cancer Research annual conference. Since my long-term goal is to continue participating in research, these have been both useful and valuable experiences.”

External Scholarship Opportunities

The Association of Schools and Programs of Public Health has developed a list of scholarship and fellowship opportunities specifically for public health students. See the following links to explore these opportunities:

- ▶ asp-ph.org/study/financing-your-degree/
- ▶ asp-ph.org/study/fellowships-and-internships/

🎓 Student Loans

Students may elect to use federal education loans, such as Direct and Grad PLUS Loans, or private educational loans to help finance their educational expenses. Federal loans typically offer more favorable terms than other consumer loans, but they still must be repaid. We encourage students to borrow only what is necessary and to minimize expenses when possible.

💰 Public Service Loan Forgiveness Program

Many Rollins students graduate to find full-time employment in the public sector. Under the PSLF program, borrowers may qualify for forgiveness of the remaining balance of their direct loans after they have made 120 qualifying payments while employed full time by certain public service employers.

This program is currently under revision with the goal of supporting additional students.

For more information, visit

<https://studentaid.gov/manage-loans/forgiveness-cancellation/public-service>.

💰 Other Sources Of Assistance

- ▶ Part-Time Employment (excluding the REAL program)
- ▶ Resident Director Positions
- ▶ Veterans Benefits
- ▶ Employer Benefits

ESTIMATED VARIABLE COSTS PER SEMESTER
Living Expenses*	$11,804
Books & Supplies	$213
Loan Fees	$614
Transportation	$347

* Emory's living expenses are based on moderate, versus low, cost-of-living estimates to allow students maximum financial aid eligibility.

ADDITIONAL POTENTIAL COSTS

Health Insurance

The estimated annual 2022-23 premium is $4,410. Please expect that rates may vary slightly. Students may opt out of the Emory student health insurance plan if covered under another policy that meets Emory's coverage minimums. Learn more: studenthealth.emory.edu/hs/insurance\_fees/health\_insurance/index.html

Campus Parking

An Emory annual parking pass will cost approximately $694. Many students avoid this cost completely by taking Cliff, the free Emory shuttle system, riding their bikes, or taking public transportation. Students may also purchase an Eagle permit, a reloadable parking card designed for occasional use.

YOUR CHOICES MATTER

BUDGETING FOR PUBLIC HEALTH SCHOOL

YOUR LIVING CHOICES MAKE A DIFFERENCE. The annual estimated cost of attendance for the 4 semester MPH program at the Rollins School of Public Health is $69,286 for the 2022-2023 academic year. If you borrow the maximum amount through unsubsidized Federal Direct Stafford Loans and Federal Direct Graduate Plus Loans, you would have approximately $30,366 for variable expenses (rent, food, books, etc.) for the year, or $15,183 per semester. The following table shows how far that might go based on high, mid, and low estimates for major living expenses.

ESTIMATED LIVING EXPENSE RANGES

	HIGH	MID	LOW
Rent (per month)	$1,000	$950	$900
Health insurance (annual)	$4,410	$4,410	$4,410
Food (per month)	$450	$400	$325
Transportation (per month)*	$400	$350	$300
Books and supplies (annual)	$426	$426	$426
Loan fees (annual)	$1,228	$1,228	$1,130
Misc. expenses (per month)	$175	$150	$125

Figures are rounded.

* If you choose to buy an Emory parking permit, a $694 (approx.) parking fee is charged in the fall semester directly to your student account. In this example, the high range assumes a parking permit, car insurance, routine maintenance, and gas expenses. The low range assumes that you utilize public transportation, ride a bike to campus, or take Emory's free shuttle system.

These estimated calculations are based on a voluntary annual living expenses survey administered to current Rollins students. Individual costs will vary.

HOW MUCH CAN YOU BORROW? You can borrow up to $69,286 for the 2022-2023 school year toward the estimated cost of the 4-semester MPH program. Figures below are calculated by adding 2 semesters of MPH tuition and recurring fees, as well as the upper range of variable and potential cost estimates. You do not need to borrow the full amount, but the funds will be available if they are needed. Below is a 12-month hypothetical budget, based on the ranges for common living expenses outlined on the previous page:

12-MONTH BUDGET RANGES

Please note your financial aid is awarded for a 9-month period, but expenses cover a 12-month period.

	HIGH	MID	LOW
Rent	$12,000	$11,400	$10,800
Health insurance	$4,410	$4,410	$4,410
Food	$5,400	$4,800	$3,900
Transportation	$4,800	$4,200	$3,600
Books and supplies	$426	$426	$426
Loan fees	$1,228	$1,228	$1,228
Misc. expenses	$2,100	$1,800	$1,500
Tuition	$37,800	$37,800	$37,800
Recurring Fees	$700	$700	$700
Potential total cost of attendance	$68,864	$66,764	$64,364

These estimated calculations are based on a voluntary annual living expenses survey administered to current Rollins students. Individual costs will vary.

The table above illustrates how your individual financial decisions can impact your cost of attending graduate school. Depending on the choices you make—where you live, whether you have a roommate, how much you eat out, etc.—your total cost of attending Rollins School of Public Health could be dramatically lower than the high range estimate.

ROLLINS STUDENT SCENARIO

LET'S TAKE A LOOK AT ONE ROLLINS STUDENT'S FINANCIAL AID PACKAGE so that you can see an example of the amount of aid our students are awarded. This will help you in determining what you may need to fully cover your educational expenses. You may need far less than you might imagine depending on your living choices.

KEEP IN MIND...

- ▶ Tuition rates increase from year to year at all educational institutions. Please factor in this increase as you consider expenses.
- ▶ This is only an example. Award offers vary from student to student.
- ▶ You must apply for financial aid EVERY year.
- ▶ Award packages may vary from year to year.
- ▶ Deferring admission may result in a change in an award offer, particularly if grants are involved.
- ▶ The scholarship award reflected is an external award this student found using the ASPPH Funding Your Degree website:
  - aspph.org/study/financing-your-degree/
  - aspph.org/study/fellowships-and-internships/

Unsubsidized Federal Direct Stafford Loan	$33,000
Rollins Earn and Learn Award	$12,000
Scholarship Award	$20,000
Total Award	$65,000
Federal Direct Graduate PLUS Loan or Private Loan (optional)	VARIES (based on total cost of attendance)

If you consider the low-range budget cost featured on the previous page, you would not need to borrow any additional Grad PLUS or private loans to cover your educational costs in this particular scenario.

ROLLINS AS A BEST VALUE

Rollins has one of the lowest tuition costs in comparison to many of our peers in the top 10 schools of public health. We invite you to use this cost comparison worksheet as a guide to determining the best financial choice for you. The Rollins calculations assume the costs for one academic year. Loan fees are not included in this budget since every borrower, despite the institution they ultimately attend, will incur this standard cost.

	ROLLINS	SCHOOL A	SCHOOL B	SCHOOL C
Tuition	$	$	$	$
Recurring Fees	$	$	$	$
Rent*	$	$	$	$
Transportation	$	$	$	$
Books & Supplies	$	$	$	$
Food	$	$	$	$
Health Insurance	$	$	$	$
Estimated Expenses
----- MINUS -----
Loans	$	$	$	$
Work Study	$	$	$	$
Scholarships	$	$	$	$
Total Aid	$	$	$	$
Balance	$	$	$	$

* Visit the CNN Money Calculator to compare rent rates in other cities: money.cnn.com/calculator/pf/cost-of-living/

** The balance reflects your estimated expenses minus the aid you receive. Depending on how much scholarship support you receive and loans you choose to borrow, your aid may exceed your expenses. In such a case, you may receive a refund or use the balance to reduce the amount of your loans. However, if your expenses exceed your aid, you will need additional funding (i.e. scholarships or loans) to cover your educational costs.

Utilize services offered by Emory- like the Emory Off Campus Housing website (<https://offcampushousing.emory.edu/>).

This site can help you find roommates, housing, and sublets. I used this to find a roommate and felt secure knowing that all users are associated with Emory, rather than other online sources that could be more unreliable.”

There's more to life than work and school. While there is personal growth there is also personal cost. Can you get that dog, probably or probably not? We are all on different parts of adulthood so you'll have to adjust. You will also make some lifelong friends who are in the same department or interest so find that community and support. It can be easy to let grad school take over your life just be mindful.”

Keeping up with a budget can make a difference in your spending habits while transitioning into Atlanta. There is so much to do and explore here. At times it can be overwhelming as a student but with a budget it becomes easier. If you're looking to make the most of your experience while in Atlanta, I'd say plan your weekends in advance per semester.”

HOUSING

CHOOSING HOUSING IN ATLANTA

FOR MOST STUDENTS, HOUSING REPRESENTS THEIR MOST SIGNIFICANT LIVING EXPENSE. Atlanta, with its generally low cost of living, offers a broad range of options. The Rollins campus is located along a pedestrian-friendly corridor with numerous house and apartment rentals within walking distance along Emory's extensive free shuttle routes, or an easy bike ride away. Some students live at Campus Crossings at Briarcliff, a complex of furnished apartments designed for graduate students. The Office of Residential Services hosts an off-campus housing finder at offcampushousing.emory.edu. Dining, grocery, and other types of shopping and salon services are within a three-mile radius of campus.

Popular neighborhoods for students include: Emory Point, Emory Village, Virginia-Highland, Druid Hills, Toco Hills, Inman Park, Candler Park, Morningside, Midtown, and the City of Decatur. Visit the Emory Off-Campus Housing website: offcampushousing.emory.edu/.

“Look around at as many places as you can before signing a lease. Make a comprehensive list of your “musts,” things you see as non-negotiable, and “wants,” additional features that you'd like but can compromise on, in order to condense your list. For me, a “must” was pet-friendly and in-unit washer dryer, while some “wants” were walk-in closet and a balcony- I got the closet but no balcony, but knowing my priorities really helped me plan in my apartment search. Additionally, make sure you're asking as many questions as possible to any leasing agents. It's important to make a well-informed decision, knowing all fees, amenities, and other details about your future home.”

Samantha / Rent = $902 per month

“I moved to Atlanta knowing that having roommates would lower the cost of rent. These past 2 years I have lived with 2 roommates. I have an in-unit washer and dryer and even my own parking. Thankfully, with having a car and roommates we can carpool with one another, have our own lives, but be there for each other.”

Thomas / Rent = $750 per month

“Living close to campus has many benefits related to saving money. There are many apartment complexes that allow you to live with another person. This could also cut costs. Emory provides resources like Facebook pages that have professional students who are looking for roommates.”

Ebony / Rent = $950 per month

MANAGING COSTS

TRANSPORTATION

Emory University ranks in the top 30 of green colleges in the U.S. for 2020—promoting an environmentally responsible approach to transportation, offering an extensive free shuttle service around and beyond campus, even to Atlanta’s midtown business district. Many Rollins students choose to walk, bike or take public transportation to campus. The Michael Street Parking deck is free after 4 p.m., which is a benefit for students who drive to school.

“ My number one cost saver for transportation is living close to campus. The Emory shuttle is free and accessible from most apartment complexes near campus. I like to use the shuttle when the weather is nice and I’m not in a rush, but I drive on other days. Since my commute is short, I don’t spend much on gas or maintenance for my car. Alternating between the shuttle and driving keeps my monthly payment for parking low, as well.”

Samantha / Transportation = $40-60 per month

“ I had my car loaded with my bulky belongings and had it shipped all the way from California to Georgia. I can get groceries, go to the gym and have the freedom to take care of my errands anytime.

I also do not mind driving my friends around since carpooling is encouraged on the busy roads of Atlanta.”

Thomas / Transportation = $30 per month

“ Carpooling is common amongst Rollin’s students and a good way to cut transportation costs. Another way to cut transportation costs is by living in an area that has an Emory shuttle stop. This will be useful for more than getting to campus for class. There are shuttles specifically for students that need to go shopping.”

Ebony / Transportation = $40 per month

STRATEGIZING ON TEXTBOOKS

With planning, managing book expenses is an easy way to reduce your costs. There are a number of simple options that can help you spend less than the official Emory textbook estimate.

“ I haven’t had to purchase too many textbooks. Oftentimes professors will provide free/cheap options, such as Emory course reserves, or let you know that the older (cheaper) version of the book is sufficient.”

Samantha / Books = $0-70 per year

“ I have barely spent any money on textbooks. Many articles or textbooks have been provided online or through Emory’s library course reserves and are very accessible. If there was a methods topic or interesting course, I was passionate about, I invested in the textbook for future enrichment.”

Thomas / Books = $0-$100 per year

“ Amazon is a great resource for textbooks. They usually offer multiple ways to gain access to the textbook (kindle, rent, own). Another option that is available for purchasing textbooks is asking former students in group chats and Facebook pages. They usually sell textbooks for reasonable prices.”

Ebony / Books = $100-200 per year

OFF-CAMPUS LIFE

Atlanta offers food and entertainment options for every budget. An international destination, our dynamic city has it all: farmers markets, distinctive ethnic restaurants and grocery stores, haute cuisine, and hidden dives you don't want to miss. The city's rich cultural offerings include museums, theaters, and music venues, plus dozens of free local and international festivals each year. Atlanta's many parks and public trails are perfect for outdoor activities such as hiking, biking, water sports, and camping. On campus, Emory hosts a full schedule of music, speakers, and theatrical events, and many area attractions offer discounts or special nights for students.

“ I have found that grocery shopping with a plan and meal prepping has helped a lot. It's cost-saving, so I always have some cash for a meal or two out each week. I also make it a point to make plans with friends that don't involve eating out, like taking a stroll through Lullwater or bingeing reality TV at home together.”

Samantha / Food & Entertainment = $300-400 per month (including groceries)

“ Ask yourself do you need that trip to Cabo or that venti drink from Starbucks? I have found joy in making my own coffee in the morning, using my air fryer to cook healthy meals instead of eating out every day and cooking with my fellow peers.

Budgeting time for yourself is crucial especially being surrounded by your peers in such a fun city as Atlanta. On weekends I dedicate errands, meal prepping and connecting with my peers so I have that separation from personal and academic life.”

Thomas / Food & Entertainment = $350 per month

“ You can have a social life without eating out. There's more to Atlanta than just the food. Be intentional about the experiences you partake in. I would limit my eating out to 1-2 times a month. In between those times I make sure to eat before going out with friends and I have begun to purchase snacks often.”

Ebony / Food & Entertainment = $400 per month (including groceries)

BUDGETING TIPS

- ▶ Set a budget and stick to it!
- ▶ Have extra in the budget for unexpected costs, like car maintenance.
- ▶ Having a job definitely helps.
- ▶ Ask for student discounts.
- ▶ Get a roommate.
- ▶ Utilize Emory University resources.
- ▶ Shop around for deals on necessities such as WiFi, cell phone plans, and laptops.
- ▶ Shop sale sections in the stores.
- ▶ Sign-up / join email lists that offer discounts.
- ▶ Pay off as much consumer debt as possible before starting graduate school.
- ▶ Limit the number of times you eat out each week.
- ▶ Brown bag your lunch or organize potluck dinners with friends.
- ▶ Ride the Cliff Shuttle or MARTA instead of driving in every day.
- ▶ Put off unnecessary expenses until after graduate school.
- ▶ Take advantage of on-campus activities.
- ▶ Monitor your expenses carefully. Deposit funds into a savings account each semester and transfer just enough to your checking account for your expenses each month.
- ▶ Use a student loan repayment calculator to keep up with projected repayment amounts.
- ▶ Clean up negative credit history on your credit report, if possible, AND keep your credit clean while you are enrolled.
- ▶ Remember: Many students are in a similar financial position. You are not alone!
