WHY ROLLINS?

TOP TEN. Rollins ranks among the nation's top 10 schools of public health.

INTERNATIONALLY RENOWNED RESEARCH. Rollins is home to 24 centers for innovative research and training.

CAREER LAUNCHING. More than 86% of students find jobs or continue their education within 12 months of graduation.

PROMINENT FACULTY. Rollins' dean, James W. Curran is a global pioneer in HIV/AIDS prevention and research, and more than 20 faculty hold endowed chairs thanks to generous donors.

COLLABORATIVE CULTURE. World-class faculty involve students in research in areas such as HIV/AIDS, diabetes, cancer, water and sanitation, the environment, reproductive health, emergency preparedness, health reform, and mental health.

ALUMNI NETWORK ACCESS. Nearly 10,000 alumni live in all 50 states and more than 90 countries.

REAL WORLD EXPERIENCES. Students build their careers from the get-go through a dynamic career services program, on-campus job recruitment, paid work opportunities at major health organizations, internships, and global field experiences.

SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES. More than 40 merit scholarships are awarded annually and three endowments fund Global Field Experiences for some 70 students annually.

PUBLIC HEALTH HUB. Rollins is within close proximity to top health organizations such as the CDC, CARE, The Carter Center, the American Cancer Society, the Task Force for Global Health, and county and state public health agencies.

ENGAGING STUDENT LIFE. Rollins offers an environment of diversity and inclusion with 18 student organizations and programs dedicated to connecting students with resources, the community, and each other.
