

Dear Rollins Student,

Congratulations on your decision to attend the Rollins School of Public Health! Your department advisors, faculty, and staff are making preparations for your arrival. As you prepare for your journey in public health, we will send you periodic messages throughout the summer with orientation requirements, as well as opportunities for you to engage with your new community.

The New Student Orientation Experience

The RSPH Student Engagement Team is excited to welcome you to Rollins! New Student Orientation is an engaging, multi-step program that will provide you with important information and opportunities to meet new and current students, learn about student and academic life, and more!

New Student Orientation is required for all incoming MPH/MSPH students and will comprise of:

- Course Pre-Registration and Virtual Advising Sessions with our academic departments and certificate programs. Course Pre-Registration will take place from Monday, June 13 - Friday, June 24.
- Completion of Virtual Pre-Orientation Modules in the RSPH New Student Orientation Canvas Course. Virtual modules will open on Monday, June 13.

- In-Person Orientation Sessions, which will take place in-person at the Rollins School of Public Health from Monday, August 15 – Friday, August 19.

Stay tuned for more updates regarding orientation requirements in our upcoming communications.

New Student Checklist

What can you do to begin preparing for Rollins? Check out the New Student Checklist on the Admitted Student Portal for requirements that you should complete to prepare for your arrival.

We will be updating the New Student Checklist throughout the summer.

Engage with Us!

Thank you for taking the time to review this important information, and we look forward to welcoming you to the Rollins School of Public Health.
