DEI ANNOUNCEMENTS

We encourage you to complete a set of new Emory DEI learning modules available through the Emory Learning Management System (ELMS). The modules can be found under the title “HR – Communication for Inclusion” and comprise a total of three videos that together will take ~90 minutes to complete. One of the videos entitled, “The Influence of Unconscious Bias” is the current recommendation for those who are part of selection/recruitment committees and have not taken an unconscious bias course within the last three years. Completion of these modules may be reported on this year's RSPH annual faculty report as DEI professional development activity. Additionally, please be reminded that the new DEI competencies are now integrated in annual staff evaluations. Finally, as part of RSPH's overall efforts “to build an inclusive community where all of our members can thrive”, we hope to achieve a minimum 85% completion rate among our faculty.

DEI EVENTS

The Racial Trauma Series continued this month with a new session entitled: Racial Trauma Series, Part 2: Understanding Racial Trauma Within Asian Communities: History, Healing and Allyship. In this session, we had a panel of Emory colleagues help us understand the history of anti-Asian Violence, the coping mechanisms that are used by different members of Asian communities and how allies can be effective in providing support for those within Asian communities affected by race-based violence or hate. Check video in full here.
