Belonging & Community Justice

The goal of Emory University Bias Support Services (BSS) is to uplift and support Emory students. One of the primary missions is to confront biases and transform them into catalysts for personal and collective growth and understanding. If you have experienced or witnessed a bias incident, we encourage you to submit the Emory University Bias Reporting Form for support and review through BSS.

Students interested in registering for disability-related accommodations may start the process by visiting this website. Students can also email accessibility@emory.edu for questions about the process to register. Additionally, you may contact RSPH Accessibility Liaison: Jena Black (jena.black@emory.edu)

Emory offers 12 counseling sessions per year, and 24/7 access and emotional support with their fall 2024.

Academic Support

Rollins provides free quantitative (BIDS) and ESL (EN) tutors through the RSPH Academic Resource Center. Information about how to schedule individual appointments and attend drop-in hours here. Writing Support is provided by Emory Writing Center. Additionally, you may contact pharc@emory.edu

Belonging & Community Justice +

Belonging and Community Justice includes the following offices and identity spaces on the third floor of Cox Hall.

- Center for Women
- African American Center
- Native American Center
- Gender & Sexuality Center
- Asian Pacific American Center
- Hispanic/Latino Student Union
- LGBTQ Student Union
- Emory Black Student Union

Additionally, Mariposa Scholars consists of programs designed to connect undocumented students to resources and community.

Bias-Related Incidents

The goal of Emory University Bias Support Services (BSS) is to uplift and support Emory students. One of the primary missions is to confront biases and transform them into catalysts for personal and collective growth and understanding. If you have experienced or witnessed a bias incident, we encourage you to submit the Emory University Bias Reporting Form for support and review through BSS.

Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS)

Confidential short-term individual therapy, couples therapy, group therapy, and workshops are available through Counseling and Psychological Services to help you better manage stress and supports your overall well-being. Schedule an appointment here.

Cross counsellors are available to meet in person from Monday-Friday, 8:30AM-5:00PM. CAPS has expanded after-hours support to include phone, video, and more. Students can reach a counselor by calling 247-737-4867, 24/7 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Emory TimelyCare

Emory also provides tele-health & 24/7 mental health support through TimelyCare. This support includes 12 counseling sessions for Emory students per year, and 24/7 access and emotional support with their fall 2024.

Case Managers Available

Student Case Management and Intervention Services operates student-conceptualized support services. Students, staff, and faculty learn how to effectively navigate on campus and community services in key areas of insecurity, such as food and housing, and guides students to access holistic wellbeing and academic resources.

Student Intervention Services

Complete the Student of Concern Form to connect with a Case Manager for personal and social support or contact Student Intervention Services (SIS) for crisis intake. Reporting acute stress is available 24/7, 404-435-1120.

Financial Support

If you are experiencing financial difficulties related to personal or tuition, please contact the RSPH Student Support Team at rollinsstudentsupport@emory.edu.

Food & Housing Security

If you are experiencing food insecurity, please fill out the Food Security Self-Assessment Program Form. This will enable you to receive Meals Using the Student Food Support Common Table for immediate use. If you request additional swaps, a case manager to reach out to you directly to discuss on-off campus food resources.

You can also complete the Student of Concern Form to connect with a Case Manager if you are experiencing mental health insecurity.

First Generation Student Support

If you are a first-generation student seeking support, please contact Jennifer Duckworth, First-Gen at Rollins Program Advisor, at jducksw@emory.edu. Students may also connect with the Emory First-Gen Program for support.

International Students

International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS) assists international students with visa and immigration-related documents, offers community-building opportunities, and provides非物质 services for the international student community.

Students may also contact Jennifer Duckworth at jducksw@emory.edu for questions about the International Student Advisory Board.

Sexual and Relationship Harm

Office of Respect: Offers confidential, 24/7 support to students with concerns related to sexual and relationship-based harm (including sexual misconduct, relationship violence, and stalking). They provide emotional support, medical/tel/court accommodation, help students understand their rights and more. To call them 247 at 404-273-3300. They provide confidential medical/tel/court accompaniment, help students understand their rights, and more.

Department of Title IX: If you might have experienced sexual harassment or gender-based discrimination and would like to report it, please contact Joanne Williams, RSPH Deputy Title IX Coordinator, at jampost@emory.edu.

Student Health Services + Sexual and Reproductive Health

For more information about Student Health Services, how to access them, and care options, dial this. In-person and telehealth appointments are available.

Student Health Services and the Center for Student Wellbeing offers comprehensive, confidential, multidisciplinary sexual health and reproductive services. You can sign up for appointments by logging into your Patient Portal.

Expecting Parents

For students that are expecting and would like to seek academic accommodations, please contact Jaimie Williams, Title IX Coordinator, at jaimpos@emory.edu.

Nutrition

Student Health Services offers students up to 15 free sessions per semester to meet their nutrition goals, in addition to medical appointments. You can sign up for appointments through the Patient Portal.

Food & Housing Security

If you are experiencing food insecurity, please fill out the Food Security Self-Assessment Program Form. This will enable you to receive Meals Using the Student Food Support Common Table for immediate use. If you request additional swaps, a case manager to reach out to you directly to discuss on-off campus food resources.

You can also complete the Student of Concern Form to connect with a Case Manager if you are experiencing mental health insecurity.

First Generation Student Support

If you are a first-generation student seeking support, please contact Jennifer Duckworth, First-Gen at Rollins Program Advisor, at jducksw@emory.edu. Students may also connect with the Emory First-Gen Program for support.

International Students

International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS) assists international students with visa and immigration-related documents, offers community-building opportunities, and provides非物质 services for the international student community.

Students may also contact Jennifer Duckworth at jducksw@emory.edu for questions about the International Student Advisory Board.

Sexual and Relationship Harm

Office of Respect: Offers confidential, 24/7 support to students with concerns related to sexual and relationship-based harm (including sexual misconduct, relationship violence, and stalking). They provide emotional support, medical/tel/court accommodation, help students understand their rights and more. To call them 247 at 404-273-3300. They provide confidential medical/tel/court accompaniment, help students understand their rights, and more.

Department of Title IX: If you might have experienced sexual harassment or gender-based discrimination and would like to report it, please contact Joanne Williams, RSPH Deputy Title IX Coordinator, at jampost@emory.edu.

Student Health Services + Sexual and Reproductive Health

For more information about Student Health Services, how to access them, and care options, dial this. In-person and telehealth appointments are available.

Student Health Services and the Center for Student Wellbeing offers comprehensive, confidential, multidisciplinary sexual health and reproductive services. You can sign up for appointments by logging into your Patient Portal.

Technology Support

Our technology services and resources are available for students to utilize, ensuring their success at RSPH. For assistance with computer purchases and other inquiries, contact Rollins Technology Support. For any technology-related inquiries or issues, reach out to the RSPH IT Service Desk at help@sphs.emory.edu.

IF YOU HAVE QUESTIONS OR NEED SUPPORT, PLEASE CONTACT: rollinsstudentsupport@emory.edu