

RSPH STUDENT SUPPORT TOOLKIT

SPRING 2024

Click here or Scan the QR Code to download the RSPH Student Support Toolkit!

Click here or Scan the QR Code to download Emory Safe, a personal safety mobile app.

TOPIC	RESOURCE DESCRIPTION & LINKS
Accessibility Needs  	To obtain an accommodation letter for your accessibility needs, you can e-mail accessibility@emory.edu or visit their website here. Additionally, you may contact RSPH Accessibility Liaison: Jena Black, Director of Enrollment Services and Academic Affairs, at jena.black@emory.edu
Academic Support  	Rollins provides free quantitative (BIOS and EPI) and writing tutors through the RSPH Academic Resource Center. Information about how to schedule individual appointments and attend drop-in hours here. Additionally, you may contact rspharc@emory.edu
Belonging & Community Justice + Campus Identity Spaces 	Belonging and Community Justice includes the following offices and identity spaces on the third floor of Cox Hall. Identify spaces are open M - F from 9:00AM - 7:00PM. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Center for Women • Office of LGBT Life • Asian Student Center • Centro Latinx • Emory Black Student Union • Emory First (First-Generation Students) Additionally, Mariposa Scholars consists of programs designed to connect undocumented students to resources and community.
Bias-Related Incidents 	The goal of Emory University Bias Support Services (BSS) is to uphold our vision of inclusivity and fairness. The primary mission is to confront biases and transform them into catalysts for personal and collective growth and understanding. If you have experienced or been witness to a bias incident, please use the Emory University Bias Reporting Form to submit it for support and review through BSS.
Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) 	Confidential short-term individual therapy, couples therapy, group therapy, community referrals, and workshops are available through Counseling and Psychological Services to help you better manage anxiety and support your mental health. Schedule an appointment here. Emory also provides tele-health 24/7 mental health support through TimelyCare. This support includes 12 counseling sessions for Emory students per year, and 24/7 access and emotional support with their Talk Now Program.
CAPS Let's Talk 	CAPS offers an informal, free, and confidential consultation service for graduate and professional students, who can speak with a clinician and receive support with challenges that they may be experiencing. Let's Talk Sessions are available every week. Click here for more information.

TOPIC	RESOURCE DESCRIPTION & LINKS
Case Managers Available 	Student Case Management and Intervention Services assists students and their families on an ongoing basis and in times of crisis to meet academic, medical, financial, and social challenges. Click here for more information or call them at 404-430-1120. Support is available 24/7.
Expecting Parents 	If you are expecting and need accommodations, please contact Joanne Williams, RSPH Deputy Title IX Coordinator, at jampost@emory.edu.
Financial Support 	If you are experiencing financial difficulties related to personal expenses or tuition, please contact the RSPH Student Support Team at rollinsstudentsupport@emory.edu.
Food Security 	If you are experiencing food insecurity, please fill out the Food Security Safeguard Program Form. This will enable you to receive three meal swipes for the Dobbs Common Table (Dining Hall) for immediate use. Additional concerns disclosed in this form will also enable a case manager to reach out to you directly.
Housing Security 	If you are experiencing housing security, please complete the Student of Concern Form to connect with a university case manager for assistance.
First Generation Student Support 	If you are a first-generation student seeking support, please contact Jennifer Ducksworth, First-Gen at Rollins Program Advisor, at jducksw@emory.edu. Students may also connect with the Emory First (First-Generation Program) for support.
International Students  	International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS) assists international students with visa-related questions and offers community-building opportunities. Students may also contact Jennifer Ducksworth at jducksw@emory.edu for questions about the RSPH Global Peer Network Program.
Sexual and Relationship Harm  	Office of Respect: Offers confidential, 24/7 support to students with concerns related to sexual and relationship-based harm (including sexual misconduct, relationship violence, and stalking). They provide emotional support, medical/Title IX/court accompaniment, help students understand their rights, and more. To contact the Office of Respect, call their 24/7 line at 470-270-5360. They provide emotional support, medical/Title IX/court accompaniment, help students understand their rights, and more. Department of Title IX: If you might have experienced sexual harassment or gender-based discrimination and would like to report it, please contact Joanne Williams, RSPH Deputy Title IX Coordinator, at jampost@emory.edu.
Student Health Services + Sexual and Reproductive Health 	For more information about Student Health Services, how to access them, and care options, click here. In-person and telehealth appointments are available. Student Health Services and the Office of Health Promotion offers comprehensive, innovative, multidisciplinary sexual health and reproductive services. You can sign up for appointments using your Patient Portal.

TOPIC	RESOURCE DESCRIPTION & LINKS
Nutrition 	Student Health Services offers students up to 15 free sessions with a registered dietician to meet their nutrition goals, in addition to medical appointments. You can sign up for appointments through the Patient Portal.
Health Insurance 	If you have any questions about the Aetna Student Health Insurance offered by Emory, please contact the Student Health Services Insurance Team here.
Spiritual & Religious Life + Pastoral Care 	The Office of Spiritual and Religious Life supports Emory's religious and philosophical diversity for all students, faculty, and staff. Click here to access their services, which includes pastoral care and grief and loss support.
Recreation and Wellness 	Recreation and Wellness offers programs that allow graduate students to prioritize physical activity in the way that moves them: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Intramural sports: Emory offers seasonal leagues and tournaments each semester. Create a team with a group of your peers! • Club sports: Participate in competitive sport activities and enjoy the recreational and social fellowship from sports involvement. • Group fitness classes: Offer a variety of activities for graduate students to participate in at no additional cost. • Outdoor recreation: Provides opportunities for students to experience adventure and build community. Join an off-campus trip or skill building clinic.
Technology Support  	If you are in need of a laptop and are seeking to purchase one at a discount, you can visit here. They provide next-day shipping. If you have any technology questions, contact help@sph.emory.edu.

QUESTIONS? CONTACT THE ROLLINS STUDENT SUPPORT TEAM

Based in the Office of Student Affairs, the Rollins Student Support Team consists of trained staff members who:

- Assess a student's individual situation to offer comprehensive support and advisement.
- Work with academic departments to explore academic options as needed.
- Connect students with our Care Partners within Emory University and the Community.

rollinsstudentsupport@emory.edu